"In Southwerk at the Tabard as I lay,
Redy to wenden on my Pilgrimage"

Foreword

DOWN the narrow streets of London, into the rough courtyard of the inn they clattered, gay of heart and clad in motley costume, Chaucer's immortal Canterbury Pilgrims, come to make preparations at the Tabard Inn for their journey to Canterbury. They represented all walks of life and all varieties of temperament, from the dainty Prioress to the Miller with the wart on his nose.

A gust of wind—and six hundred years have been swept away. The Canterbury Pilgrims have receded into the dim corridors of time—but not so with pilgrimages. Mankind is still seeking that which he has never found. We recognize ourselves as another pilgrim band, gathered together by chance, on the way to some other Canterbury shrine. We, also, have paused to prepare ourselves before beginning the long journey. Our group, too, includes a variety of personalities. The dandyish Squire, the worldly Monk, the gossipy Friar, and the Knight who loved chivalry and honour—we have known them all in their modern guise.

Shortly we shall fare forth, with the light heart and bright costume of youth. May our pilgrimage, fortified by strong friendships, living knowledge, and ideals of responsibility to our fellow-travelers, prove as pleasant as that of the Canterbury Pilgrims and lead us, at last, to that other cathedral, built, not of stone, but of years of uncompromising striving for the Right.

In Honor

Like the Nun, serene in bearing; like the Clerk, a lover of knowledge; like the Parson, "rich in holy thought and work"; and, like the knight, "honoured everywhere for worthiness," she is the epitome of all that is finest in the best-loved Canterbury Pilgrims. We, however, who have known her in the intimate contact of school life, can not think of her in meaningless abstraction. To us, she is, rather, the staunch supporter of student activities, the sincere friend and sympathetic adviser, and the advocater of that thorough and precise knowledge that constitutes real scholarship. In this day of bewildering standards, she is a strong and comforting assurance that there are values which the days can not change. (For her there is no compromise.)

In appreciation of her sterling character, whose contagion we have not missed, and of her genuine love for youth, we, the staff of 1938, do affectionately dedicate this volume of Snips and Cuts to

WHEN the cock had crowed, the day had begun to spring, and the Host had roused his guests from their slumbers, the Canterbury Pilgrims left the Tabard Inn and began their journey to the holy shrine. Like them must we, at the turning of the hourglass, leave our comfortable hostelry and, with our comrades, venture forth on the Great Pilgrimage. Let us hope that, like the Pilgrims of old, we may face the hardships of the road with a blithe spirit and a confidence born of courage. Those of us who become separated from the friendly Pilgrim band will hope for a reuniting at some wayside inn. But we must hasten, for the sand runs swiftly, and the way to Canterbury lies white under the fresh, blue skies of spring.

THE PILGRIMS

"SO PRIKETH hem nature in hir corages,
Then longen folk to goon on pilgrimages,
And palmers for to seken straunge strondes,
To ferne halwes, couthe in sondry londes;
And specially, from every shires ende
Of Engelond, to Caunterbury they wende."

Senior Class Poem

Remembering now the frailty of the hours
That crumble in the ever-passing years,
We pause and sigh for beauty that was ours,
In memories forgetting future fears;

Recalling tranquil walls and ordered days,
Hallways barred with sun from open door,
Worn books whose words persuade to nobler ways,
Desks scarred by hands impatient of dusty lore;

The trailing grief of willows in the spring
That, knowing pain, yet cheer the brief years through,
Traditioned pride that sways us as we sing
The ceaseless sacredness of gray and blue.

Though time will crush these hours that swiftly passed,
The jeweled dust of such dim things will last.

Senior Class History

Early on a bright morning in September, 1935, several hundred frightened, but determined Sophomores trailed their way to old Central High School. Visions of what was to come danced before them—things to be accomplished—things that had never been done before. But first the belt line had to be met, conquered, and left to be, or not to be forgotten. 'Twas done, and under the competent guidance of "Tiny" Waddill and Jimmy Greenwood, the class of '38 started moving on to triumph.

Three outstanding events marked this first year of our existence; namely—the installation of the motion picture machine with its attendant recess and full-length shows; the renewal of the gym classes bringing with them the Girls' Athletic Association and organized sports for girls; and the re-installation of the National Honor Society.

Central had now become such a popular place that something had to be done about the traffic problem. Accordingly, a traffic system was organized and the halls took on the appearance of a well regulated city, complete with officers and signals.

The Rambler, official bi-monthly paper again received an "A" rating from the Southern Scholastic Press Association.

Radio debates were instigated by the O. D. S., and through this medium put Central in a bright spot in the nation's conscience.

At the close of the year, the Class of '38 was clicking like a well oiled machine, and was "raring" to enter into the fields of glory as Juniors.

The Junior year opened most auspiciously with Mack Murphy at its helm. The first project of the year was the installation of the student telephone, for which the students and faculty had long felt a need.

Deep sorrow came to us during this year with the death of our beloved Miss Charlee, who for many years had been the guiding mentor of all Central students. She was mourned alike by students, faculty, and alumni; for all who had known her loved her. The desire to have some fitting memorial, to be the outward expression for our love and devotion for her, was the uppermost thoughts in our minds. A memorial fund was raised, and a beautiful portrait was hung in the main hall as a constant and loving reminder that although she is no longer with us in person, her spirit still remains as the guardian friend of all Central students.

A new secretary, Miss Miriam MacFadyen, carved a place for herself in the business side of the school, replacing Miss Lena Jones, who felt the darts of Cupid, and left us for the school of matrimony.

So this year of Junior life rolled on to a close, selecting Gene McGarity as president of the Class, and Mack Murphy as Chief Marshal to usher out the Class of '37, who had at last gained that coveted position—Seniors of Central.

Senior year—a time of dignity. We were now the leading class, and it was now our duty to work even harder than before for the glory of our school. During the summer a new wing of twelve rooms had been added to the main building, and a music building had been built on the back campus. A fully equipped infirmary was opened in the main building, and radio loud-speakers were placed in the history class rooms. As its first project, the Student Assembly refurnished Dr. Garinger's outer office. Central was indeed growing into an outstanding modern school plant.

During the fall, the Music Department made music history with the presentation of the first light opera in the history of the school. The opera, H. M. S. Pinafore, was well presented before large audiences. A little later, a series of weekly musical broadcasts were begun.

Mack Murphy, president of the Student Council, and Jack Huckabee, president of the Senior Class led us safely and swiftly through our first semester of Senior life. It was during this regime that a nickelodian was placed in the cafeteria. The football team, for the second consecutive time attained the height of State Champions. In this semester, many new clubs were formed, both social, and vocational.

At the beginning of the second semester, Gene McGarity was elected president of the Senior Class, and Bill Shore president of the Student Council to lead us on to that glorious, yet sad conclusion of our High School life.

During this term the school dances gained in popularity, and the gym became the scene of much music and fun. So well did these affairs succeed, that we were allowed a half-hour broadcast of our music over radio station W.B.T.

St. Patrick's Day brought again its annual carnival with all its hi-jinks and merry making. Incidentally, this carnival was the most successful one in the history of the school, both socially and financially.

A sixteen millemeter projecting machine was purchased and added to our motion picture equipment, a fine addition, and one of which we are proud.

A straw vote on the question of the Municipal Swimming Pool was raised, and, according to the student votes, is a settled issue. The vital question of an R. O. T. C. unit at Central is at present before the public.

But all things must come to an end and so it is with regret that we leave Central, where we shared joy and sorrow, hard work and fair play, and journey out into the world of college and business. We hope that we have written a record of our deeds, not only on paper, but in the very heart of Central, itself. May she find that record worthy of her traditions, and accept it as our part of her great history.

Central will live in our hearts, and we, the Class of '38 are proud and grateful to have been her students.

Respectfully submitted,

MAE DUCKWORTH, Class Historian.

Senior Class Prophecy

Charlotte, N. C.,
May 15, 1948.

DEAR "HUTCH":

Congratulations are in order by now, I think, and may I be the first to extend them. Really old man, it nearly bowled me off my feet when the paper announced your appointment to the Embassy in England. Maybe it's a good thing you took that correspondence course in law after graduating from good old C. H. S. Since we couldn't be accused of carrying on what might be called an extensive correspondence, I thought maybe you would like to hear what has become of some of the headliners of our graduating class.

They're not hard to keep up with, as you can't pick up the paper without seeing something about them. For instance this morning's Observer stated that Bill Shore was running, either for or from the sheriff. (The print was blurred, and I couldn't tell which; but guess we'll give him the benefit of the doubt).

It must have been a pretty versatile group, the way Bill Felts is turning out "best sellers"; his latest being "How To Win Fems and Influence Papas." He's not the only one, however, who has found a literary career, for Susan Cochrane has dropped her admiring following and gone into shadowy seclusion to work on her latest literary triumph "How To Live Alone and Like It."

Jack Huckabee is really raising cain now; I admit that doesn't sound like him, he was always such a quiet chap, but he's gone into the sugar engineering field and raising "cane" is pretty essential. Out of all the girls, I guess Nell Abbott and Betty Bradfield have come nearest paving easy street with their own gold bricks. Nell piled up her "rocks" through endorsing advertisements for "Betty Boop's Balmy Beauty Bath," while "Betty B" has just about crowded Shirley Temple off the screen (I guess you expected this as she was always so quiet and sweet). While we're on the subject of movies, I want to remind you not to miss John Barr's new picture, "Tarzan The Terrible."

Remember Julian Miller? Just tune in your radio and you'll hear his orchestra beginning another delightful half hour of rhythm with his theme song "Ten Pretty Girls" (something about a pretty little red head).

Nita Mitchell is making her fifth trip to the altar in June; looks like the gal would get one on approval and see if she liked him.

Tena Grainger and Lalla Marshall are modeling clothes in "little old Noo Yok." Guess they got their start in the fashion show Miss Hutchison's home room put on at the carnival. Ann Mauldin and Mae Duckworth have chosen careers instead of the double harness and opened up a quaint little place on the square (that's the location, I couldn't vouch for the credentials of the place). They call it "Ye Olde Needle Shoppe." With each ball of yarn you get (absolutely free) all the latest gossip.

The youth of Charlotte are saved. The apostle of the righteous is on the high road, disperse ye rebels and be converted. "Reverend" Gene McGarity now renders his weekly "story with a moral to it" every Sunday from the pulpit ("bull pit" is probably the right word). It's funny how some people get started on a great life's work isn't it?

"Black Mack" Murphy and Jimmy Greenwood merged their resources and bought out Malaver's Pool Room. Mr. Malaver said they hung around so much he thought they deserved to own the place; so he let them have it cheap.

Remember George Liles? He's the punk who edited SNIPS AND CUTS our Senior year. Well, he's still there at Central; seems he can't get his "annual" income tax figured out. He was just $10.00 short; so I suggested, to save himself the mental exertions, that he go over to Charlie Nelson's pawn shop and secure one of Charlie's "substantial" loans on some of his valuables. He said, however, he had to do that to get SNIPS AND CUTS out in '38 and besides he didn't think he'd get a square deal.

Don't forget Charlotte, and your friends here. The first time you're not polishing some of Uncle Sam's Brass, heave to, drop the hook, and we'll look up some of the others we knocked around with.

Lots of luck,

"SPECK" DAVEGA.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Class of Nineteen Hundred and Thirty-eight, realizing that the pilgrimage is almost over and that soon our existence will be but a happy memory, being in full possession of a sound body and clear mind, do make and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking and declaring null and void any and all wills heretofore made and executed by us.

We request that our funeral services be conducted in the Central High School auditorium during assembly in order that all of our friends will be present.

ARTICLE ONE

TO THE JUNIOR CLASS:

Item One—To the incoming seniors we leave the privilege of acting as dignified and sophisticated as they may desire.

Item Two—To them we also leave the distinct privilege of wearing all the loud clothing they may think proper and in good taste.

Item Three—To the members of the Junior Class we likewise bestow any wads of paper or milk bottles we may have unwittingly left behind.

ARTICLE TWO

TO THE FACULTY:

Item One—To our highly esteemed principal, Dr. Garinger, we will and bequeath our undivided coöperation in order to help him achieve his dream of a bigger and better Central High School.

Item Two—To Miss Fraser, we leave our sincere appreciation for her thoughtfulness, her patience, and her friendship.

Item Three—To Miss Herr, we leave those algebra students who unluckily fell by the wayside when confronted with infinite sries and logarithms.

Item Four—To Miss England, we leave either Mr. Allred or Mr. Dysart, the choice to be decided by flipping a street car ticket.

Item Five—To Mr. Tinkham, we leave the results of this year's physics classes.

Item Six—To Miss Akers, we leave a Spanish class which will prepare their daily lessons.

ARTICLE THREE

TO VARIOUS INDIVIDUALS:

Item One—I, Mack Murphy, leave my bashful disposition, my host of admiring friends, and my political genius to Norman Pease.

Item Two—I, Gene (Mug-Bug) McGarity, will my little stories with their respective morals to Dan Wolfe.

Item Three—I, "Tiny" Waddill, leave my dimples and attractive smile to Ann Wiley.

Item Four—I, Ray Lester, bequeath my lightning like left hand and general boxing ability to Jimmy Huntley.

Item Five—I, Mae Duckworth, leave my popularity to Geoffrey Jordan.

Item Six—I, Richard Steele, leave my well-worn notebook and my ability to make all A's to Ben Willeford.

Item Seven—I, Speck DaVega leave my lanky carcus and 33⅓% of my freckles to Steve Karres.

Item Eight—I, Lalla Marshall, do leave and bequeath my sunny smile and cheerful disposition to Lucy Lee Sandridge.

Item Nine—I, Ernest Morris, leave my pugnacious temperament, my ferocious temper, and my all-around two-fisted fighting ability to Ray Kissiah.

Item Ten—I, Banks Cates, will my conscientiousness and willingness to work to Joe McLaughlin.

Item Eleven—I, Hampton (pronounced Beau Brummel) Short, do grudgingly give the technical art of bull-shooting, and my well-groomed, beautiful hair to Campbell Ansley.

Item Twelve—I, Betty Bradfield, leave my executive ability, my business-like manner, and my athletic ability to Betty Hutchison.

Item Thirteen—I, Jimmie Greenwood, leave my knowledge of parliamentary procedure to Herbert Minnis.

Item Fourteen—I, Ann Mauldin, leave my secretarial experience and a well-worn fountain pen to Betty McClintock.

Item Fifteen—I, George Liles, leave my title of "Central's most dignified boy," as well as the editorship of next year's annual to Lacy McLean.

Item Sixteen—I, John Barr, will my general athletic ability and my old, battle-scarred football uniform to Woody Wilson.

Item Seventeen—I, Jack Huckabee, bequeath my likeability and willingness to work to John Ball.

Item Eighteen—I, Bobby Trotter, leave my musical talent to Jay Black.

Item Nineteen—I, Carl (Strong-arm) Rowland, leave my many feminine admirers to Wilford Kale.

Item Twenty—I, Julian Miller, do will and bequeath to my brother, Robert Miller, my slightly soiled old pair of basketball trunks and half a stick of well-chewed Wrigley's Spearmint gum.

Item Twenty-one—I, Nell Abbott, leave my bashful disposition and my winning smile to Elsie Moseley.

Item Twenty-two—We, the annual staff of 1938 do will and bequeath to the annual staff of 1939, the controlling interest in the school.

Item Twenty-three—I, Joe Simpson, leave my flashy Buick to William Ivey.

Item Twenty-four—I, "Kernal" Marion (Short-circuit) Hargrove, R.S.V.P., A.B.C., X.Y.Z., etc.—(retired)—leave.

We do hereby declare and empower Dr. E. H. Garinger to be the executor of this, our Last Will and Testament.

In witness whereof, we, the Class of Thirty-eight, the testators above named, have hereunto set our hands and seal this first day of June in the year of our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Thirty-eight.

THE CLASS OF THIRTY-EIGHT,

(Signed) BILL SHORE, Class Lawyer.

Signed, sealed, published, and declared by the above Class of Thirty-eight as being their Last Will and Testament, we, the undersigned in the presence of each other and in the presence of said testators, have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses thereunto.

Book II

Organizations

The craft guilds of the Middle Ages were the manifestation of a truth man discovered in the early stages of his development, that the group can produce results where the individual is impotent. The purposes of the guilds were much the same as those of other organizations, to protect the interests of the special group by regulations, to offer stimulation by the exchange of ideas, and to promote good fellowship. The tradesmen of that day could not have been prouder of their fraternities than are our students of the clubs and other organizations that have arisen spontaneously to meet the varying aims and enthusiasms of our ever-changing student body.

THE FIVE TRADESMEN

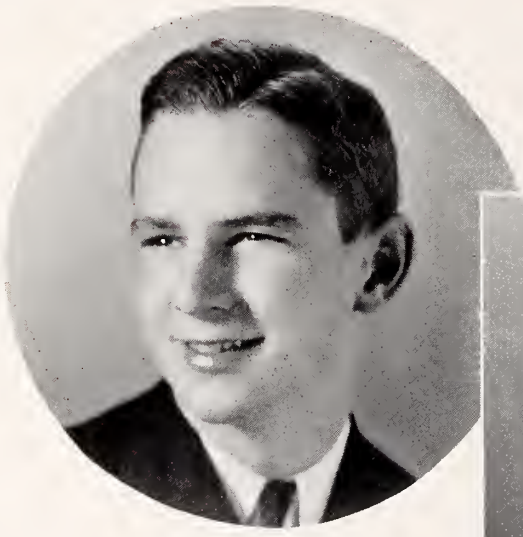

"And they were clothed alle in o liveree,
Of a solempne and greet fraternitee.
Wel semed ech of hem a fair burgeys,
To sitten in a yeldhalle on a deys."

IT SEEMS difficult to imagine a more heterogeneous group of people than the nine and twenty pilgrims who set forth from the Tabard Inn that April morning, their interests ranging all the way from writing poetry to baking pies. Yet, perhaps, any gathering of students in a large high school would display similar divergencies. In the attempt to provide for such individual preferences, the modern school offers a large variety of subjects, vocational and avocational, grouped into several departments of instruction.

Athletics

As the Knight in the Canterbury Tales fought for his honour and his lady, so does the football hero of today battle for the honour and reputation of his school. The winners of glory in the justs of old were no truer-hearted than our loyal lads who strive valiantly for the fame of the school, whether the field of combat be the gridiron, the basketball court, the cinder path, the baseball diamond, or the boxing ring. Outwardly, contestants seem greatly changed since the days of Chivalry. The fancy is no longer ensnared by the glamour of plumed helmets and glistening steel armor. But, stripped of all ornament, the combatants of our day possess, in full measure, the indomitable spirit of courage that marks the gallant warrior of all the ages. To the athletes of Central High School, who have "jousted for our faith at Tramissene," we proudly grant the accolode of our acclaim.

The Knight

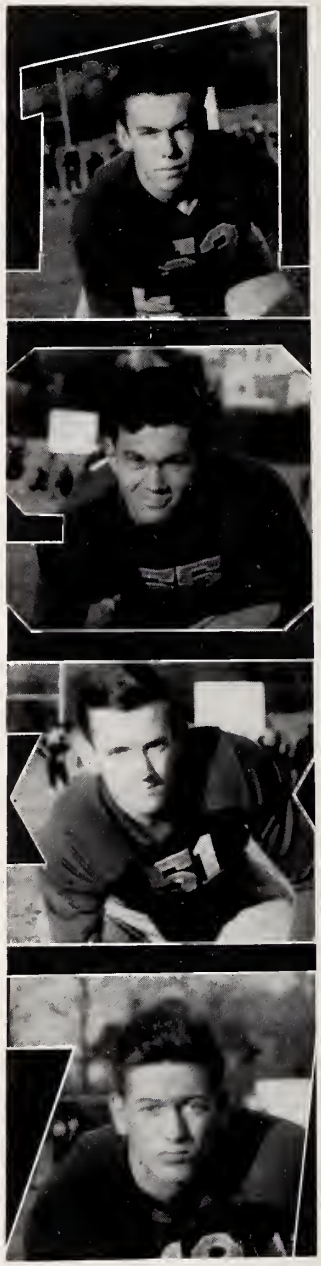

"At mortal batailles hadde he been fiftene,
And foughten for our feith at Tramissene
In listes thryes, and ay slayn his foo."

7-0

The season opened with a bang by the Wildcats beating a stubborn foe, Barium Springs, 7-0. Wartman scored the only tally by a 46-yard spurt of speed around right end.

37-0

The first Conference foe, Gastonia, was taken in hand easily by the score of 37-0. Huckabee crossed the last chalk mark three times, Captain Tom Smith crossing twice, and Cameron crossing once. Patterson intercepted a pass on his own ten-yard line to stop the Green Wave's only scoring threat. Smith, Huckabee, Barr, Patterson, and Cooper played bang-up ball.

7-7

Central met a stubborn foe in the Spartanburg outfit, tying 7-7. Spartanburg scored in the first quarter on a pass from Tinsley to Neely. Tinsley converted. Huckabee scored from the five-yard mark in the third quarter and drop-kicked the extra point. The game ended with the Wildcats on the Spartans' one-yard marker with two downs to make it. Huckabee, Tom Smith, and Gill were outstanding in the backfield. Patterson, Cooper, Robert Smith, and Wilson were outstanding in the line.

(7-10) First Defeat

The Wildcats went up in the cold mountains of Asheville and came back on the short end of the score. This was their first defeat of the season. Charlotte outcharged and out-played the Maroons. Charlotte scored four touchdowns only to have them called back for penalties. In the first quarter Asheville scored a field goal. They played on even terms with Charlotte getting the better of it and scored in the third quarter. Huckabee drop-kicked the extra point. A few minutes later the Maroons flipped a long pass which gained to the Wildcat's five. They proceeded to score the winning touchdown. The game ended 10-7 in Asheville's favor. Smith, Cooper, Owen, and Huckabee did fine work.

(0-7) Only Other Defeat

It was a cold rainy night and Children's Home of Winston-Salem took advantage of this fact and handed the Wildcats their only other defeat of the season. Templeton, of the orphanage, scored the only touchdown of the night. Central would make many long thrusts into the opponents territory but their defense against the boys was too well planned and the Wildcats were stopped within the five-yard line several times during the night. Huckabee, Barr, and Smith played well in the rain.

(18-6) Second Conference Victory

Greensboro was put away in workman-like form. Greensboro scored in the first quarter. Coach Allen must have told the boys plenty because they came out fighting. Smith and Cameron scored in the third quarter to put us ahead. "Big Ike" Gill tore their line to shreds and scored in the last quarter. The game ended 18-6 in Central's favor.

(41-0) Another Conference Foe Bit the Dirt

We met the third Conference team on their home ground. This didn't bother the Wildcats in the least. They ran all over and around the weaker High Point team. Wartman and Huckabee scored two touchdowns each. Kale, Gill, and Elliot scored one apiece. Huckabee drop-kicked four extra points and Cameron place-kicked another. The game ended with the one-sided score of 41-0 in our favor. Huckabee, Kale, Gill, Howell, Jackson, Cameron, Brogden, Elliot and Muller played good ball for the Wildcats.

(38-0)

Salisbury was out-driven and out-fought by the rip-roaring Wildcats. Wartman made some nice runs scoring three touchdowns. Elliot and Cameron scored one each. Gill and Tom Smith scored an extra point apiece. Huckabee broke his collar-bone and was out for the rest of the season. Gill, Kale, Huckabee, Wartman, Wilson, and Patterson were outstanding in this game.

(39-7) Western Conference Champions

The Wildcats continued their winning streak to win the Western Conference title by downing Winston-Salem 39-7. Central scored four touchdowns in the first half and two more in the last half. Gill and Kale scored two touchdowns each. Elliot and Cameron scored one each. Cameron kicked two extra points and John "Horse" Barr kicked another. Kale, Gill, Barr, and Wilson played outstanding ball in this game.

(20-7) State Champions

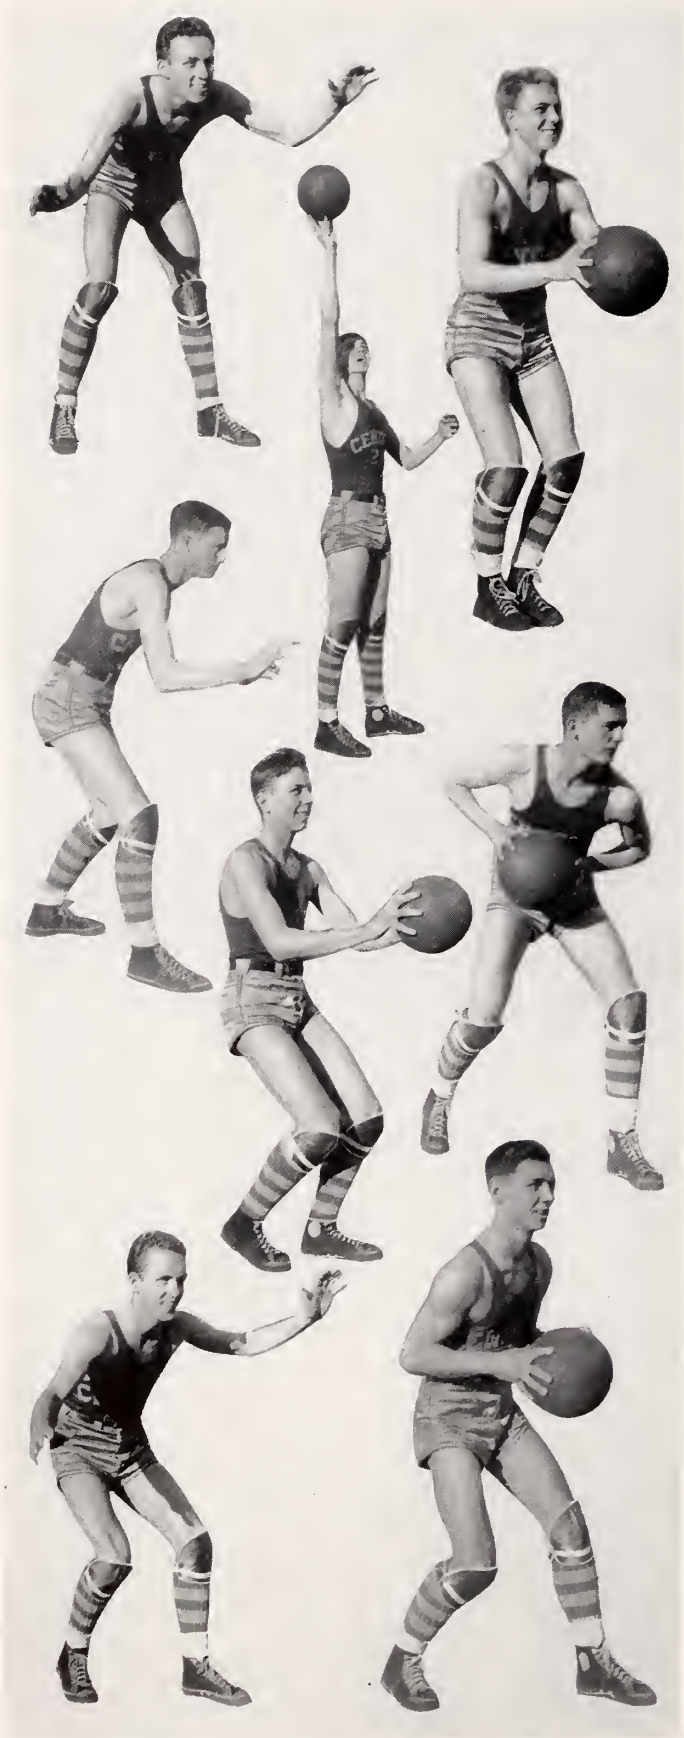

History repeated itself. The Wildcats were in Chapel Hill to play for the State Class-A title for the second year in a row. The day was clear and crisp. Things started popping at the beginning; for on the opening kick-off Wartman took the ball on his own ten-yard line and raced to a score. There was perfect blocking on this play. Huckabee, with a partially knitted collar-bone, went into the game and kicked the extra point. Tom Smith intercepted a pass on his own five-yard line to stop a very dangerous threat. "Big Ike" Gill took the ball, faked a reverse, and ripped through the whole Rocky Mount team to score from the twenty-two yard line. Huckabee again came in and kicked the extra point. Rocky Mount scored a few minutes later and converted. Tom Smith plunged over from the ten-yard marker. Huckabee's try for the extra point was blocked. The game ended with the same score, 20-7. Central, for the second year in a row is State Class-A champion. Kale, Gill, Hutchison, Tom Smith, Wartman, Jackson, Cameron, and Morris played well in the backfield. Wilson, Cooper, Patterson, Barr, Robert Smith, Helms, Elliot, Owen, and Brogden stopped anything that Rocky Mount tried to run through the big blue line.

Basketball

The basketball team, under the guiding hand of Coach Jim Boylston, won many ball games, just losing out by a few points to Salisbury to lose out in the conference race. The "Blue Streaks," as they were called, won seven out of nine conference games. Captain Julian Miller led his boys well at all times. The only experienced players were Captain Julian Miller, Robert Miller, Jack Sims, Jones Tipton, George McCachren, and Frank Owen.

Central's varsity played a novelty game with the faculty. The game was very exciting but the faculty wasn't in as good shape as the varsity, thus tiring quickly. The varsity went ahead to win 33-21.

1938 Baseball

The 1938 edition of the Charlotte High Baseball Team is really a classy club. There is plenty of zip in the infield and plenty of power everywhere. Coach Boyleston is doing a fine job. All indications are that the locals will stop nothing short of a record which has never been surpassed.

Boxing

The 1938 Central boxing team came through the season with flying colors, winning all of their matches. They lost to Raleigh, by one-half a point, the state championship. The Wildcats were favored to win but John Barr, last year's 165-lb. champion, was the only man to enter the 175-lb. class so the officials said that he couldn't enter. Ray Lester won the State 135-lb. class championship. He wasn't only state champion but won all of his bouts.

The individual fighter's records are as follows: Hugh Lester won one (decision), lost one (TKO); Nelson Williams won two (decisions), lost one (decision); Albert Page won two (decision), lost three (two decisions and one TKO); Ray Kissiah won six (decisions), lost four (three decisions and one TKO); Zimmer Rape won two (decisions), lost three (decisions); Bobby Kissiah won one (decision), lost two (decision and TKO); Ray Lester won eleven (six decisions and five TKO's); John Bittner won three (two decisions and one TKO), lost one (TKO); Al Scholtz won three (decisions), lost one (decision); Carl Tyson won seven (two decisions, one TKO, and four KO's); Charles Coppola won four (three decisions and one TKO), lost two (decisions); Captain John won two (one decision and one KO); Tom Kleto won two (decisions).

The prospects for the 1938 track season are very bright. Coach Vince Bradford has put his speedsters through several time trials with new boys coming through in fine style. The tracksters are being ably led by Captain Charles Gregory. The times made during the first time trials indicate that there is a very good chance that Charlotte's Blue and Gray will again be the State's champions.

THE WIFE OF BATH—the very name brings a twinkle to the eye, the tongue to the cheek, and a condoning smile to the lips. In her flamboyant way, she represents a frank and light-hearted enjoyment of life as one finds it. She would have approved highly of the pilgrimages our modern beauties make to collegiate shrines, of the exciting round of dances, the lovers' sighs and raptures, and all the other gay good times that give zest to our high school days.

A good book is something you open with anticipation and close with pleasure and pride.

THIS is a good book. To the Editorial Staff's intimate knowledge of the history of your school for the year has been added the skill and craftsmanship of an organization with more than forty-five years continuous operation to bring to you in permanent, lasting form, this record of school life.

It is the product of a printing house where the pride of hand craftsmen is augmented with every modern mechanical facility.

It is the result of cooperation between Staff and publishers personnel you will ever find at . . .
